

EARN IN-DEMAND CREDENTIALS

while developing your skills.

Prepare for high-demand jobs with great salaries with the Integrated Career and Academic System (ICAPS) program. You can earn an IT or Manufacturing certificate in as little as one year while earning your high school equivalency—all at no cost. A new career can be just around the corner.

Build Your Skills through ICAPS at College of DuPage

- FREE program
- Prepare for careers with great salaries
- Earn a CompTIA A+ and Network+, CCNA, Welding or CNC operator certificate in as little as one year
- Complete your High School Equivalency
- Receive college credit
- Job placement assistance
- Also available to high school graduates

College of DuPage Adult Education

425 Fawell Blvd., Glen Ellyn, IL 60137
Student Resource Center (SRC), Room 1110

(630) 942-3796
or (630) 942-3697
HSE@cod.edu
cod.edu/ICAPS

Stevens Amendment

Approximately 37 percent of the Illinois Adult Education and Literacy Program cost at COD is federally funded under Title II, Adult Education and Family Literacy of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998.