EXPLORE CAREER POSSIBILITIES

Tailor your career development to complement your personality and interests

Sponsored by College of DuPage
Career Services and Counseling and Advising Services
Career Exploration and the Self-Directed Search Workshop

Learn how to use your self-directed search assessment results in your career development. You will receive strategies for gathering occupational information and using COD resources to assist in your job search. $10

To register, visit cod.edu/careerservices and click on Career Advantage Workshops.

Berg Instructional Center (BIC)
- Thursday, Sept. 21, 6 to 7:30 p.m. (BIC 3451)
- Wednesday, Oct. 18, noon to 1:30 p.m. (BIC 3540)
- Tuesday, Nov. 14, 6 to 7:30 p.m. (BIC 3451)
- Wednesday, Dec. 6, 6 to 7:30 p.m. (BIC 3419)

Combined Interest and Personality Inventories

Take the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator and the Strong Interest Inventory to discover how your personality and interests can guide your career development. $50

To register, go to http://registerblast.com/cod/exam and select Career Exploration Workshops: Combined Interests and Personality Inventories.

Student Resource Center (SRC)
- Thursday, Oct. 5, 1 to 5 p.m. (SRC 3104)
- Wednesday, Nov. 1, 5 to 9 p.m. (SRC 3104)
- Tuesday, Dec. 5, 5 to 9 p.m. (SRC 3104)

CONTINUE HERE

- Resume and cover letter assistance to help you make a strong impression on potential employers.
- Interview coaching to help you present your skills to an employer and land the position.
- Internship opportunities to gain needed work experience and the opportunity to explore your major.
- Social media workshops to teach you how to start branding yourself in a new career.

The Career and College Information Collection (CCIC) provides information on career development and occupational choices. This multimedia collection assists you in planning your career and employment goals.

My Next Move
http://www.mynextmove.org
- Learn more about your career options with this interactive tool.
- Use the interest assessment to explore career options.
- Search tasks, skills and salary information for more than 900 careers.

Illinois Career Information System (CIS)
http://ilcis.intocareers.org
- This site is for anyone searching for in-depth career resources. CIS offers information on occupations, programs of study and training, as well as Illinois and national schools.
- Log in as a guest by choosing your town name from a dropdown list and adding ZIP code. (You must be an Illinois resident to use segments of CIS.)

Career Coach
http://www.cod.edu/careercoach
- Explore local data on wages, jobs, and necessary education and training.
- Career Coach helps to assess your interests and identify career choices.
- Veterans, explore with your Military Occupation Code (MOC) identifying positions with matching skill sets.

O*NET
http://www.onetonline.org
- Explore information on more than 1,000 occupations, including work tasks, skills, abilities and values.
- From the Bureau of Labor Statistics, job outcomes and salaries by state are accessible.