Living Leadership Learning Agreement

In order to get the most out of the program, you need to make a commitment to what it entails. You will need to make the choice to “step-up” to the opportunities presented to you. The Living Leadership Program will not allow behavior that is contradictory to this commitment to impede or distract from the experience of other participants.

- I understand that participating means listening, sharing my viewpoint, and participating in activities.
- I agree to take responsibility for my own learning.
- I agree to ask questions if I don’t understand, participate even if I have done an activity before, and challenge myself to step out of my “comfort zone” this year.
- I agree to respect individual differences and the dignity of all people.
- I will keep an open mind and strive to learn a new perspective on the world.
- I agree to conduct myself to the highest standard of behavior in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.
- I agree to maintain effective communication with my fellow program members and College of DuPage staff.
- I agree to fulfill the requirements outlined in my Living Leadership Program Plans.

Pre-Program Self-Assessment:
Reflect on past experiences with groups.
What are your strengths when you are in a group?
What leadership skills would you hope to improve or learn more about?
How do you plan to use what you learn from the program in the future? Be specific.
