In an effort to streamline accounts receivable and reduce processing time, NCTA will no longer accept or process purchase orders (PO's) as a means of payment or payment notification.

If your institution utilizes PO's for internal tracking for invoices and payments to outside vendors, please do not send a copy of the PO to NCTA. Instead, process the PO internally, and make payment directly to NCTA at the address listed on your invoice.

Once received, NCTA will update your invoice to reflect the payment status as "PAID". This policy goes into effect May 10, 2024.

Dear NCTA Member,

We know people have busy lives, so we wanted to take this opportunity to remind you that your membership with NCTA will expire on 06/27/2025

If you are still deciding whether to renew, or just haven't gotten around to it yet, don't miss out on the exclusive benefits that come with being an NCTA member. As a valued member, you have access to discounted admission to our highly attended Annual Conference, a listing in our Membership Directory, access to the NCTA Proctoring Network, and educational webinars. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to network with like-minded professionals and access our comprehensive Testing Standards and Guidelines as well as Test Center Certification.

Renewing your membership is an excellent way to demonstrate your ongoing commitment to the field of testing and support the professional development of testing professionals.

To renew your membership quickly and easily, please visit our Membership Renewal Form and log in with the credentials below:

Hi! NCTA membership invoices should have arrived. I have one that came in on 4/27. Can you double check to see if the other one came to one of the supes? I always forget who gets it. I'd like to see who we have and try to add Sam and Kelli from Access and Accommodations to our membership.
